

Shri Pranav Khullar has graduated in English Literature/Western Philosophy with a M.Phil from Hindu College, Delhi University. He is from the 1993 batch of the Civil Services and has worked in various offices in the Central Government in the Ministry of Finance, in the Controller of Auditor General (CAG) and the Ministry of Culture. He has a published work of short stories/middles "Bus to Mukerian" in the 1990's. Further, he has been writing extensively on Indian Philosophy, on issues of Vedanta and other aspects of mysticism, for the 'Speaking Tree Column' of the Times of India for the last 20 years. He has been contributing to various other magazines like India Perspectives published by the Ministry of External Affairs, on issues related to Philosophy and Culture. He has also been influenced deeply by Vivekananda, Lincoln and Gandhi, whose works he has read extensively.