NOTICE

Subject: Temporary re-location of Research Room

Users of National Archives of India Research Room and staff members are hereby informed that owing to renovation work in the present Research Room, consultation facilities are being temporarily shifted to the Conference Room adjacent to the Research Room located on the Ground Floor of the NAI Annexe . The provisional change will be effective for a period of eight days from 02nd December 2017 and will last up to 09th December 2017. The renovation is aimed to provide a more ambient and user- friendly environment.

The renovated Research Room will have, networked computer monitors on all tables that will facilitate easy access to our improved online search portal 'Abhilekh Patal - 2.0' version' (www.abhilekh-patal.in), together with introduction of 'Digitize on Demand' services.

Besides, the NAI has also obtained access to online collections of records of Indian interest in foreign archival repositories. Thus, users of NAI's Research Room will now have access to:

1. Foreign Office Files for India, Pakistan and Afghanistan, 1947-1980 (www.amdigital.co.uk/m-products/product/foreign-office-files-for-india-pakistan-and-afghanistan-1947-1980/)
2. East India company : India Office Records from the British Library 1595-1947:
Module I: Trade, Governance and Empire, 1600-1947 (www.amdigital.co.uk/m-products/product/east-india-company).

The users' co-operation is solicited and inconvenience in this regard is regretted. Comments and suggestions are also invited for improving our services further. Please drop an email at research.nai-archives@gov.in.

(Dr. Sanjay Garg)

Deputy Director of Archives
